THE CALEDONIAN.

C. M. STONE & CO. ST. JOHNSBURY, VT.

TERMS .- One copy per annum, - - $1,50° If not paid within the year, - - - $2.00. 1 7 No paper discontinued till all arrearages are paid except at the option of the publishers.

RATES OF ADVERTISING. Per square, (of 15 lines), three insertions, - S1 For each subsequent insertion, - - - - 15e-Business Cards of five lines, per annum, St Special Notices, leaded, double the above rates. All short advertisements, such as Liberations, Lost, Found, Estrays, Notices, &c., not probably making over fifteen lines, are charged at $1; and to save the trouble of book-keeping and collecting, must invariably be accompanied with the cash. .*. Advertisements inserted till forbid (tf) unless otherwise ordered.

JOB PRINTING.

Our Printing establishment was never in better condition than now, and increased attention will be given to this branch of business. We keep teach as what to teach. constantly on hand Paper and Card Stock, and are now prepared to print Handbills, Programmes, Auction Bills, Bill Heads, Labels, Circulars, Business and Wedding Cards, &c., &c., at short notice. Orders by mail will be carefully attended to, and the work forwarded with despatch.

The White Lily's Whisper.

BY MRS. SIGOURNEY. Bow down thy head thou born of clay,-

Bow down thy head to me, A drooping lily seemed to say, As sank the footsteps of the day, Upon the grassy lea.

Its dewey lips to mine I press'd And drank its stifled sigh, Hast thou a wee to be confessed Thou favored of the sky?

Two buds beside my heart awoke, More pure than opening day : But lo! a hand with sudden stroke, From my embrace those idols broke, And bore them hence away.

Still deeper seemed the Lily's tone My listening car to greet: Think not for sympathy alone That thus to thee I make my moan. Though sympathy is sweet.

No! Be my wound thy lesson made. We love your noble race Whose lot it is like ours to fade, Like ours to see in darkness laid, Your blossom's withered grace.

So let the Will Supreme be blest, And still with spirit meck, Shut rebel tear drops in your breast. And wear as badge of heaven's sweet rest. Its smile upon your cheek.

Life.

BY ROBERT SOUTHEY. The days of infancy are all a dream, How fair, but oh! how short they seem-'Tis Life's sweet opening Spring!

The days of Youth advance: The bounding limb, the ardent glance, The kindling soul th v bring-It is life's burning Summer time.

Manhood-matured with wisdom's fruit, Reward of Learning's deep pursuit-Succeeds as Autumn follows Summer time.

And that, and that, alas! goes by: And what ensues ! The languid eye. The falling frame, the soul o'ereast? "Tis WINTER's sickening, withering blast, Life's blessed season-for it is the last.

Sorrow.

BY LONGTELLOW. Then in life's goblet freely press, The leaves that give it bitterness. Nor prize the color d waters less, For in thy darkness and distress

New light and strength they give. And he who has not learned to know, How bitter are the drops of woe With which its brim may overflow He has not learned to live.

turned to the ladies, and referring to his Scraps of history, aneedotes and simple illus- the axles were cut off and the amount ated and ren was his friend.

REPLENISHING THE SANDS OF LIFE.—The following letter, i tended for the "retired physician whose sands of life," Ac., has found tion. its way into the newspapers :-

"Koney fork, Orgust 28th 1857. ment in the nuzepapers that vure ands of sand is not so fine may bee as sum you've ing are necessary parts of a good education. letter to Governor Bingham :ceen. But if you blow in the nuz papers & Hon. O. H. Smith, in the Indiana State Jour- "Sin:-I did my utmost, as editor of the prisoner's part for such a deed it was proved was the first to speak. git the edditurs to say it was good it wood git the edditurs to say it was good it wood and, says:—"A fine looking young mon call—Democrat, to defeat you, but I am upon his own admission, that he bad been ill—well," he said, "I s'pose there's no need his pocket and forgot it. do first rate How mutch wood you ews in a yere & How mutch would you giv a hogshed while. Of course we have a great while went, he said, "I spoket and forgot it."

Well, he said, "I spoket and forgot it."

I have a great while went, he said husband to sell the right of homestead, of our bein' here a great while. Of course we have a great while went, he said husband to sell the right of homestead, of our bein' here a great while. Of course we have a great while went, he said husband to sell the right of homestead, of our bein' here a great while was chartery saved—and saved from and, upon obtaining such license said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of husband to sell the right of homestead, or the said husband to sell the right of husband to sell the rig fur it & and you pay the frate your respekfully with me. I inquired of him as to his educa-H. Bugg Sanders Nashville runs out & ews it agane. with the sand it woodent run so fast."

there are some people in this world rather not do." "Do you read well?"—"Certainit is because it hints to us of a perfection still dling were kept. Entrance had been gaired being hanged sent a strange thrill through and such friends and selectmen may appear given to watching their neighbors. At least, ly." "Read this."—" My name is Norval more absolute, which it is impossible to atif we can believe the following, from the on the Grampian Hills." "What was his tain on earth; and the vague sense of the im-Utica Observer, there are some in that town.

The carry of the Grampian Hills?" "Do you possible fills us with a yearning longing which was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "No. I was result?" "No. I was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found the blade of a knife which had but Grampian Hills?" "Do you was found to some him that town.

chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of some of her neighbors. A physician has of some of her neighbors. A physician has of the prisoner's knife! A maker of cutlery the night when Charley was robbed—for in the hand. They differed in opinion as had made a knife to order for Ambold only Charles had tall me as when I richted kin in several times fastened his horse to a post in for a lawyer; the dead languages may be disfront of a neighbor's residence. This he was pensed with, but Spelling, Reading and Wrishortly warned not to do again. So, when ting cannot be." I advised him to go to next the .Esculapius made his appearance, he one of our common schools and begin his edasked the lady, who was at one of the win- ucation over again, and he might yet qualify dows of the house, where he should tie up, himself for the study of the law." This defi-'Let the horse stand,' was the prompt reply, ciency every where pravails. Would it no the neighbors will watch him for you! be well for the hundreds of youth who have Enough of those same neighbors heard the attended our Vermont Academies, this aucomplimentary remark-we only hope it did tumn, who think they understand the branch-and heard one chap say to another, "Jest way for them to be more useful in the busilook -he's got a blue snapper on his whip- ness or profession which they may choose. lash this time."

"Grandpa, did you know that the United States have been in the habit of encouragemeasles, and make you pay for 'em."

Caledonian.

VOL. 21--NO. 23. ST JOHNSBURY, VT., SATURDAY, DEC. 12, 1857.

Vermont Education.

Published under the sanction of the State Teachers'

HOW TO TEACH.

scholars near them, and foster a kind of awful respect. This they call dignity! Before abundant, and where the men grow large in and get their attention. Say, "Come ve children." There are some good men who are ob- limestone formation under the soil. Parts one day asked if they would like to go to Massachusetts, than in those who left Massachusetts, than in those who remained. Heaven, and who, much to their teacher's as- Kentucky, Ohio and Iowa, will grow great grandpa would be there, and would be sure stop the growth in large cities, and the great to say Get along boys, get along boys.' I and glorious West, with its broad prairies. For a similar reason many children do not the Eastern States." like to be at school. If a teacher always expect some of the agricultural societies to ofears or uses harsh language; or if he is scolding and fretting, more or less, every day, he will soon drive his pupils from him, and make no avail to attempt teaching those who do ice cream: not love you. The sooner the teacher leaves the school room the better, if he cannot command the love of his pupils. When children love the teacher they will learn anything

2. It is necessary to get the scholar's attention. Nothing is more important. The teacher should make it his study to get the they do not give attention, your labors will Passumpsic, Nov. 25, 1857.

PRIMARY STUDIES.

life have nearly run out. I had no idee sand Do not pupils pass too soon from the studies was so skeeree in yure naiborhood. We have required to be taught in our common schools got a big iland here about too mile long where to branches more appropriate for the higher tion .- "I am a graduate of an Eastern Col-"P S whi don't you save the sand when it lege; I understand Latin, Greek and He-

write well?" - "No, I never could write inspires a feeling of mournfulness. "SHE HAD THEM THERE .- A lady in town much; indeed I never tried to learn; our chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names was about the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names was about the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names was about the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names was about the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names was about the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names was about the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names where one day the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names where one day the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names where one day the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names where one day the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names where one day the chances to be unfortunate in the opinion of great men East can hardly write their names where the chance was an expectation of the chance of the chance where the chance was an expectation of the chance of the chance where the chance was an expectation of the chance where the chance was an expectation of the chance where the chance where the chance where the chance was an expectation of the chance where the chance where the chance was an expectation of the chance where the ch some of her neighbors. A physician has of late been necessitated to visit her family late been necessitated to visit her family write." He scratched off some carricatures, and he know the blade to much as in the shape of the member whose rather frequently. There being no hitchingrather frequently. There being no hitchinglooking like Greek or turkey tracks. "That much as in the shape of the member whose a month previous, and he knew the blade his cell. I had then asked the unfortunate panionship. A youth may make a I the good post before the lady's own door, the doctor is sufficient; your education is too imperfect merits they were discussing. A young gentle- at ance, and swore to it!

es taught in our common schools, to avail Yes, we hope so, too. But that's nothing themselves of an opportunity to attend the to what the inhabitants of-well, suppose we district school and look over, nay, study, for lady's heart, but it always dreams. call it Squeezeville-used to be. Were there three months, Spelling, Reading, Writing, once; only rode through the town-came Geography, and practical accounts? Should again eleven years after-rode through again they do so, I doubt not, it would prepare the

Passumpsic, Nov. 13, 1857.

ing and acknowledging tories?" "Certainly says: 'It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to fire the house! I the blues. Throughout the entire western ing and acknowledging tories?" "Certainly says: 'It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house. It is not written that in the beginning —that—you and I are going—a—a—to be— That friend had to come forward and swear which had been used to me the house of the ho Now give me some peanuts, or I'll eatch the and peasant, but male and female created he -"A-never mind, Georgie—we know bet- a letter he had written to the prisoner! This it from Moulton Warren's hat. I looked to ous men will emigrate thither by our advice.

Recipe for Growing Big Men.

Recently, some wise Frenchman published a learned treatise on the means of getting rid of hideously large paunches, which reduced to a point, is nothing but to use animal food, I think it is as important to know how to bles as little as possible. But the greatest to no effect. I could not swear that I was his own chirography. discovery of all has been made by Dr. O. W. Holmes, who tells us that the reason why the 1. It is important to get the pupil to love human race deteriorates in some regions, is

"In Kentucky, Ohio, and Western Vermont, men grow to large sizes because of the Acting on the limestone theory, we shall Awake: thy arms were round me. And still in dreams we met, In dreams the wild love bound me By yows that thrill me yet. My lips were pressed to thine, love: With kisses then I spoke, Twas Eden while we dreamed "I was hencen when we awoke, prosperous scene of life stands the saddest for the teacher to his classes, as they seat lamp, a gust of perfumed evening air, a false be an unmeaning drudgery to yourself and IP Mr. Graves employs an Irishman on of his substance.

tell your pupils and thereby fix their atten-T. D. E. of Russia has annihilated the English language-by a stroke of his pen. German is no longer to be taught in the College of Irk-"Doctor h james,—I see by yure advurtize- Are these appreciated as they should be?" utsk, where there is a considerable trade with California; and the programme of the studies announces that la langue Americaine is to Yours, etc., The commission was promptly sent.

graduates." "Do you spell well?"-"I pre- der us most sad-as do the sweetest strains testimony stronger still.

beautiful hand is that which gives."

Jean Paul says love may slumber in a make short miles,' is a Danish rendering of a rather universal practice.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT.—Helping a handsome up. young lady out of a mud hole.

fancy what people are saying!" Captain which he had received from a friend of his I started as though a shot had struck me. makes him crazy. Or if a temperance man, in the list against the owner if resident in this Jeremy Taylor, speaking of marriage, Charlie-"Well, Georgie!" Cousin-"That (and a friend of mine) only a week before! I held in my hand the other half of the sheet three per cent a month is sure to bring on State. ter- we are not so foolish!"

A Scene in a Jury Room.

A THRILLING STORY.

The case to be tried was one of arson- shake my head and pity him! on the panel, and had me retained.

wears a sour look; if, with the least provoca- fer a prize for the biggest man of limestone took our seats in the jury box. I had a very be suspected of having set the fire; so he ran

Presently I started up and pretended to be in such homestead, order an assignment of

was a power of temptation more effective that he was innocent!

your scholars too. You can do nothing with. his farm, who is one of the most stupid fel- And I knew this very man who was upon "My boy is inno- Word was instantly sent to the judge that the claims of creditors and others that the out securing their attention, "That is just lows that ever bothered a good natured em- the jury-this Moulton Warren-was the cent." How "Old Bullion" was Made. — simple, the pupils will hearken. This rule the axletrees! After a great deal of hard still ignorant of the flame that scorched abused there were heavy against him. Warren was tried, and it was plainly proved may, at any time, after due notice to all inter-Thomas H. Benton, in a speech in New York, may not be universal, but it is nearly so, labor, and utterly spoiling a valuable saw, him. He really believed that Moulton War
The counsel for the prisoner made his that he had set fire to the house, and that the

had spent much of his time.

The evidence for the prosecution came on. It was plain, straight-forward, and very conclube who had robbed Ambold, and when he passage. and I was startled. One after another gave sive. in their testimony, some of them very relucThe judge finally gave his charge. He was what it was, and even when that partly burnNo. 29.—AN ACT Relating to the Homtantly, and I was frightened when I saw how fair and candid. He reviewed the evidence ed half had been exhibited in court, he had plainly it all pointed to the prisoner as the carefully, and pointed out such as bore heavi- entirely forgotten that he had torn off the His hereby enacted, &c. guilty party. Several credible witnesses by upon the case. He told us if there was a swore that they had heard him threaten to linearing doubt in our minds are must have done. The letter had been found husband owns any real estate in this State in swore that they had heard him threaten to lingering doubt in our minds we must give in Ambold's pocket-book, and he had kept it which the wife has a homestead, and said wife burn the house down; and others had heard the prisoner the benefit of it. But I could because in it the youth had been warned shall have been finsang one whole year next against his influence. He confessed that he prisoner the benefit of it. But I could because in it the youth had been warned shall have been finsang one whole year next against his influence. He confessed that he eny kwantity of sand can be dug up and it is institutions? There is every reason to be- Exceedingly Cool .- The editor of a firm Then came several witnesses-three of the mind.

> that he had been heard to say that the salva- to the house!" tion of soul and body depended upon the de- There was something in the manner of that was a delicate matter. He thought of Paris the stone floor, but piled up against a wooden they told him Warren had gone. and the three goddesses. Glancing from one partition. This floor was damp, and some to the other beautiful white hands presented of the outer shavings, even, were not wholly to him, which, by the way, he had the cunning burned up. But just at the edge, where the to hold for some time in his own, for purposes fire commenced, lav a piece of paper, rolled of examination, he at last said, "I give it up; up, and about half burned, and from the the question is to hard for me; but ask the manner in which it lay. It was very evident poor, and they will tell you that the most that the fire had been set with it. This piece to the table when I found I had made a misof rolled paper had been ignited by a match, take. I had got part of a letter from another trived a sort of ceremonial inclined plane for a number of which were scattered around, and as soon as it was on fire, it had been laid on the floor, with the burning end just in the my attention. I looked more closely, and metaphorically speaking, stern foremost into A borrowed horse and your own spurs shavings. Of course, these shavings were in a blaze instantly; but the paper torch being sentence: upon the damp stones, had not burned wholly RATHER DEEP!-Cousin-"Charlie!-Just letter belonging to the prisoner! A letter you will do better." friend's name was Stephen Grant. He was a see if I had been observed-and I had not. Gospel Banuer.

young merchant, and the letter had been writ- I put the paper back, and then took a piece facts respecting such homestead and properten for the purpose of inducing Ambold to from my own hat, which was of the same ty, and praying for relief in the premises; reform. Stephen tried hard to avoid testify- pattern as the other, and by its side. I once had the extreme felicity of leaving ing, for he knew, as did others that the fire I returned to the table and sat down. Warmy business to serve upon "the Jury." I must have been set with that identical paper; ren was by my side. He had written his I have been a teacher for many years, and especially lean meat, and indulge in vegeta- plead in all manner of ways for release, but but he was summoned, and be could not dony opinion, and took a knife from his pocket to the petitioners shall give security to the ad-

I did tell them I had already formed an were willing to testify to the prisoner's good please," I said to him. you. You can do but little without it. The the lack of material in the soil to produce opinion. They asked me if my opinion qualities; but no one could swear that he Without hesitation he did so. I took it— na to the defendants in such petition required to the lack of material in the soil to produce opinion. fault of many teachers is, they do not get their bone. He instances New England as not would prevent me from receiving the testi- was not dissipated and degraded. That house it was Charles Ambold's knife!—the large ing them to appear before such court, on a mony in good faith, and rendering a verdict had been to him indeed, a region infernal. blade was gone! With all the power I pos-certain day named in such petition, and make according to it. I replied that of course I Its degradation cried out for his bodily life; sessed, I restrained my deep emotions, and and subpena shall be served not less than you can teach children you must get the sil- proportion. The following is a description should weigh the evidence carefully, and be and its existence had long been eating away having cut my paper I handed back the twelve days before the time fixed for such apgoverned by it. I was then informed that I his soul. Poor Charley! I had before been knife. sure of his innocence; but now I could only Why should he have that knife so boldly tonishment, said they should not. When men. The finest figure in the world will be youths of the town where he resided. He said about all that had been sworn to. And, liar piece of work, to the execution of which homestead to be assigned to parties interestthey were asked "Why not," one of them said, found in the valley of the Mississippi, in a had a widowed mother who depended upon furthermore, he was around the house on the it was made subservient. "I should not like to go to Heaven, because few generations. Indoor labor, so unnatural furthermore, he was around the house on the grandles would be there and would be there are the was not ten rods off. We talked for some ten mixtures, and I would be the was not ten rods off. The trial commenced and we twelve men came to him if he were found there he might cided—he had no mercy at all. Live's Vicissitudis.—It is appalling to He had repeatedly promised me that he was around by the back of the building once and his known character. would reform, and as repeatedly had he -and that was an hour before the fire broke. The officers went away, and at the end of shall be a married man, in which case it shall themselves to recite what they have previous- step in a moment of gayety, a draught taken than any influence I could wield. He would I have told you that I knew him well. I soon as we entered the room. ly thoroughly studied. If they do not heark by mistake, a match overlooken or mistaid, a fall away into this evil companionship, and knew him so well that from that moment I The door of the room was opened, and I money shall be paid into court, in any pro-hood in the story he had told us.

what I cannot do," says one. This depends ployer. Mr. Graves owns two wagons, one one who had done more than all others to I heard the cry-and I saw an old woman charged, and then Moulton Warren was of money in court shall be made under such what I cannot do," says one. This depends ployer. Mr. Graves owns two wagons, one upon goneself. Some always do it, and ever is an old one and the other was a valuable lead the poor youth away. It was Warren sink back into the the arms of a male com-scarched. The knife was found upon him, necessary to secure the application of such ry teacher who knows how to teach does it, now one. A few days since he directed the who had led panion. It was his poor mother! Her heart and his behavior at once exposed his guilt.— money to that purpose. If the teacher gives his pupils something Irishman to take the new wagon to pieces, him away to those most abomirable haunts was well nigh broken! Yet I saw all this The presence of that letter was accounted for Sec. 7. In every case in which it shall apworth attending to, they will be sure to at- and bring it down to the city. Pat went to of sin and pollution. Why was he upon the had but little effect on the mass of spectators, by him in a dozen different ways within an pear to the court of chancery, upon petition tend. If his illustrations and explanations work, and after taking off the wheels found jury? I could only account for it upon the The prisoner's course of dissipation-his hour. tend. If his illustrations and explanations work, and after taking on the wheels found pury? I could only account for it upon the The prisoner's course of dissipation—his hour, are natural, and adapted to the subject he could not get the body of the wagon into ground that Charley still supsosed him to be many threats against the house—and the A new jury was empannelled, and Charles by for the interest of all concerned that a in hand, fresh, vigorous, energetic, plain and the old box, without sawing off the ends of his friend. The poor scorched insect was very fact of his having been robbed and Ambold was acquitted. Shortly afterwards homestead shall be disposed of, the court speech, which was labored and hard. He woman who kept it was to have been burned such orders and restrictions as to the disposimother, said:—"My mother asked me never trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly worthless body was finally got into the trations from every day life may all contrib- nearly ute to fix the scholar's attention. The teach- old box ready for a start, when Mr. Graves forth that Charles Ambold had, "with malice client was around at the back part of the her room shortly after setting the fire. She therefrom as shall appear necessary or proped me not to game, and I have never gamed; er should have a fund of them from which to arrived at home and put a stop to the Irish- aforethought," and with all sorts of wicked house more than once, he must have been in- had incurred his displeasure in various ways, er, and such sale or disposition shall extin-yer of this State, who always commands at- moral man and a good christian, consequently dwelling house, thereby endangering human left out. The evidence he could not shake, first, but they dared not complain for fear he any homestead money realized in any protention as much from his inexpressible, well- he didn't break the commandments nor the life. This dwelling, as I have already intima- and he did all he could to suppose evidence, would not be convisted, and would then be ceeding under this act shall be an infant.marand whatever capacity for endurance I may have at present, and whatever usefulness I may attain in life, I attribute to having command that have at present, and under the may attain in life, I attribute to having command that Moulton Warren had abandoned of both sexes were wont to contemporate the control of the court shall be abandoned of both sexes were wont to contemporate the count of suppose contents.

It is the court shall be abandoned of both sexes were wont to contemporate the count of suppose contents. The hardened villain confessed his guilt, after he had been condemned, and then it was noney as by its general jurisdiction it has now or to do in other cases. a good teacher, wherever you go, you will als sawing off any more axles while he lives.— gregate; and where the youthful prisons that he told how he happened to be so career! The government attorney made his pleas less in regard to the paper and buife. It was SEC. 9. This Act shall take effect from its order to ship you sum more very chepe. the of Michigan, recently addressed the following about the premises on the night of the fire. by an officer, and there locked up. A silence stated. With regard to the knile, it was as I before in the district where said real estate is situated. He took that also from Ambold's ted for license to sell the right of betaestead With regard to the provocation on the of some minutes ensued. Moulton Warren pocket, and put it in his own; and on the in said real estate, and said court, if it is of revenge. And furthermore, it was proved all know that the prisoner must bave set fire more than an ignominious death, too. He band may sell and convey the same: Provi-

"P S if you would micks sum mulasses brew; I stood number two in a large class of Why does that which is most beautiful ren-struction of that house. Next came more man, as he said this, that excited my curiosi-child. ty-I won't say it was suspicion then-only When Charles Ambold knew that Moulton a proper representation of her interests before sume so, but I never thought much of that." of melody, the fairest forms of nature and art, The fire had been set in a back basement curiosity. He spoke with a forced effort at Warren had expiated his crime on the gal-We are afraid, from what we read, that "Spell balance."—"Ballance." "That will the highest eloquence of the poet? Poe says past life. The thought of his old companion town in which such homestead is situated; was found the blade of a knife which had had frequented that evil house, and that he had gone in the same course himself; and he SEC, 3. This act shall take effect from its been broken off in trying to raise it (the sash.) had done much towards tempting Charley to was able to see the only safe path for any passage, youth if he was sure Warren was his friend. man presented himself, and by common con- But this was not all. The fire had evident- O, he was sure of it. He should have huntsent the question was referred to him. It ly set first to the shavings which lay upon ed him up on the night of his robbery, only should each take a piece of paper and write fast Table," in the Atlantic Monthly, says: down our opinion, and then compare notes .read-"Stephen Grant." Next I caught this their native element of out-doors."

cut it from the large sheet.

jects of abhorrence to children. You have of families have emigrated to these regions then a capital offence—and the prisoner at Finally he was allowed to speak for him- not worn those pantaloons before since the speedy hearing; and if upon the hearing it read the story of two little boys who were and the result in the next generation has been the bar was a young man, named Charles self. He said he was innocent of the crime night of the fire; and now he used the knife, shall appear that such homestead cannot be Ambold, whom I had known from boyhood, imputed to him. He said that he had threat-probably, without the least remembrance of set out in severalty without great inconveniand who was naturally one of the finest ened to burn that house down—that he had the loss it had sustained during a very pecu-stead or property, the court may order such large and choice. I was morally certain that he did not commit the crime, and hence, I am he did not commit the crime, and hence, I am he did not commit the crime, and hence, I am of the first to give the alarm. He had utter- rendering a verdict of guilty. Though most lars; whereupon such homesteal shall cease should not like to be along with grandpa." will compensate for the growing feebleness of sure, those who were friendly to him got me ed one cry of fire when he noticed where the of them were in favor of recommending the and the right thereto in such property be exflames must have originated, and the thought prisoner to mercy, Moulton Warren was de- tinguished.

respectable set with me-only there was one away. He also said that three nights before faint. I said I must go out a few minutes. the interest of the other parties in such propman whom I didnt like to see there. This the conflagration, he had been robbed in I kicked at the door and the deputy sheriff crty to be made to the persons interested in Kissing in a Dream,—This stanza was man was Moulton Warren. He was a dark-that house. His pockets had been emptied came. He heard my plea, and let me out.— sons of the value of such interest to such written by Mr. G. Leland, when in the deli- faced, sinister looking fellow—at least to me. of everything in them, and his pocket book, As soon as we had gained a safe distance I other parties; or said court may order a sale it impossible to do them any good. It is of cious act of sliding down a rainbow made of I knew that young Ambold had one fault.— containing forty dollars in money, and some told him all. He was astonished. He went of such property and homestead, for the ben-He had recently been addicted to drink, and valuable papers, had been taken. He had away and when he came back he brought the efit of all concerned, if it shall appear necesbeen known to visit disreputable houses. It gone there on the night of the fire to try and District Attorney and the District Judge and sary and for the interest of the parties interwas one of these houses that had been burned, persuade them to give him back his money the Sheriff. I told again what I had seen—realized from such sale, to the amount of five for setting fire to which he had been appre- and papers-or at least to get back what he I assured them that I knew what I had seen hundred dollars, shall be paid into court for could. When he got there, he saw a man go -that it was no mere suspicion. And I ex- the benefit of the persons interested in such Now I had often tried to distande Charles in whom he did not wish to see, so he had plained, too, Warren's manner in the jury-Ambold from the course he was pursuing, hung around, waiting for him to depart. He room, his former connection with the prisoner, into court, as is provided in this act, shall be undivided attention of every pupil at each despair. All homes are haunted with awful broken away. I had often talked to him of out. He knew nothing --nothing He clasped ten minutes returned with a constable added not be paid to him without the written conrecitation. "Come ye children, hearless unto possibilities, for whose realization no array of two witnesses, and with his tearless eyes raised to their number, and this constable had a two witnesses, and acknowledged by her beme," is the language of David apprepriate threatening agents is required—no lightning. There toward heaven, he called on God to witness freshly written instrument in his hand. The fore a magistrate to be her free and voluntasheriff bade me point out the hat to them as ry set.

en you may talk to illustrate and make plain, moment's oversight in handling a deadly for a while his manhood was gone. One or knew him to be innocent. I knew his very pointed them to the bat. The sheriff took the person entitled thereto, invested in a new but it will be to no purpose whatever. If weapon—and the whole scene of life is irretwo abando led women had gained great powtwo abando led women had er over him and upon them he wasted much how sinfully so! I knew there was no false- ed to his feet and seized it, but he was held court or has been paid over as is provided in the jury could not agree. They were dis- prior homestead had; and such investment took the old letter from his hat to use as a Approved, November 10, 1857.

ewsed very extenceve for bilding purpusses. lieve that it is not even yet thoroughly ap- Democratic weekly paper, in a rural district prominent citizens—who saw him lurking we—the jury—were conducted to our room With regard to the knife, it was as I before in the district where said real estate is situaresolutions thought can afford, but if he con-

"Don't you know how hard it is for some

I went to my hat, which I had placed upon a people to get out of a room after the visit is really over?—they want to be off, and you table with a number of others, and took out want to have them off, but they don't know a sheet of paper. I had got half way back how to manage it. One would think they man's hat. I was about to turn back when such visitors, which, being lubricated with the name of the writer of the letter arrested certain smooth phrases, backs them down, cooked by the Suckers, produces dyspepsia against the stockholders, if owned by the cit-The whiskey, tinetured with strychnine, izens of such State, then such shall not be set

Laws of Vermont, A. D. 1857. No. 28 .- AN ACT Relating to the Home

It is hereby enacted, &c.:

SEC. 1. In all cases in which a homestead right or interest exists in our property of the value of two thousand dollar or more, including such homestead, and Sich homestead cannot be set out to the per on entitled thereto in severalty without great inconvenience to the parties interested in such homestead WHOLE NO. 1063 or property, any person interested therecerv in the county in which such property and all persons interested in such homestead or property shall be made firsties to such pe-verse party for the costs of prosecution, in deaf, nor blind, nor yet non compos; but The case looked dark. Many witnesses "Let me take your knife a moment, if you the manner provided by the rules and practice of the court of chancery in other tases: and thereupon the court shall issue a subpapearance. SEC. 3. The court of chancery may make such interlocutory orders in such cause as

SEC. 4. Said court may, on such hearing paid to the person entitled thereto, unless he

Sec. 6. In every case in which homestead the preceding section, and such new home-held a slight idea of calling the writer to an king the application, and having no goardian, night of the fire he used it to pry up the sash the opinion that the interest of the husband and when he had broken it he put it back in and wife require it, may grant a license to was saved to be a noble, virtuous man; and ded, however, that before any such license his mother once more took ample delight and shall be granted, notice shall be given to the joy in the love and tender care of her only friends of such insane wife, by publication or otherwise, in such manner as will best secure

Approved, November 10, 1857.

No. 30 .- AN ACT in Relation to Trespass

It is hereby enacted, &c .: resolutions thought can afford, but if he con-tinue one evil companionship he is not safe! dered in favor of the plaintiff, in an action of trespass upon the freehold, commenced before a justice, the plaintiff shall recover full costs, GETTING OUT OF A ROOM. -- Dr. Holmes if the justice rendering such judgment shall By the by, the foreman proposed that we in his article "The Autocrat of the Break- certify that the cause of action arose from the wilful and malicious act of the defendant. Approved, November 10, 1857.

It is herely enacted, &c.: SEC. 1. Stock in banking and other corporations in any other State, held or owned by citizens of this State, shall be set in the list and taxed to such e tizen, if similar shares in the same corporation owned by an inhabitout or citizen of such other State, are liable to be taxed and are in fact taxed. But in case the laws of such State are such, that the Chicago is a poor place for a Yankee. pay aff the tax which is exacted, and a tax is "And now, dear Charles, if not for your The climate gives him the ague fever. The in fact exacted of such corporation, and no And this paper was found to be a part of a own, yet for your mother's sake, let me hope water brings on diarrhea. The food, as tax is by such laws assessed on the shares

Approved, November 7, 1857.

Relating to the Grand List," Approved November 14, 1855.